Brevard Brown Scores 11 Points As Maroon Devils Make Impressive Debut

By LEROY SIMERLY

COACH DWIGHT HOLSHOUSER'S Asheville high quint made an impressive debut yesterday afternoon by defeating the Marion high Rippers, 49 to 27, before a small crowd on the Lee H. Edwards court.

The Maroon Devils ran up a 10-point lead in the first quarter. Marion came back to outplay Asheville in the second quarter, reducing the Maroon lead to seven points at the half, but the Devils pulled steadily away with a smoother offense in the final half.

Asheville's passing was exceptionally good for an opening game, but the Maroons missed many attempts at field goals.

Brevard Brown, a newcomer who played for Bryson City high last season, set the scoring pace for the Maroons with 11 points. Clyde Leeson and Bernard Gradman of Asheville and Frank Pace of Marion tallied eight apiece.

Dec 10, 1946

Coach Holshouser said he probably would start Bernard Gradman and Bill Bryant, forwards; Clyde Leeson, center; and Gus Allen and Brevard Brown, guards.

Gradman, Bryant and Leeson are all veterans from last year's team. Brown played for Bryson City high and is one of the most capable performers on the squad.

A. H. S. Trims Salisbury In Final Circuit Game, 43-26

THE Maroon Devils of Asheville high handedly defeated the high handed Boyden high of Salisbury a 43-26 licking in the final Western conference game of the season last night on the Lee Edwards court.

Brevard Brown was the sparkplug of the Asheville combination and found the range for 22 points. Marvin Robinson took runner-up honors with 11 points, the same number caged by Salisbury's Cline.

After the first quarter, when the visitors held a 6-5 margin, the Maroons were never headed and held a 16-10 edge at the half and a 27-15 lead at the end of the third period.

Final game of the season for the Asheville quint will be Tuesday night when the Maroons are host to the Blue Ridge School for Boys.

George Muse, a Hall Fletcher graduate, and Brevard Brown, former Bryson City player, have clinched the second base and short-stop positions, respectively, and will give the Maroons a good defensive combination around the keystone sack.

Rooster Hawkins, another ex-legion player, is showing up well at the hot corner and seems to have the job at third sewed up.

Centerfield is another spot currently causing Coach Coman some trouble. James Calvin, Johnny Foster and Walter Brank are the leading candidates for the berth, with Foster having the inside track.

Jack Mitchell, who may double as a relief hurler, and Graham Meadows, will probably fill the other two outfield spots.

Gus Allen and Allan Ashe will share duty behind the plate and Joe Swain will be used as a utility infielder.

Following Thursday's game at Gastonia, the Maroons swing over to Salisbury for a contest Friday afternoon. First home game for the club will be on Tuesday, April 15, when Gastonia invades the Lee Edward's diamond.

The remainder of the schedule:

HIWASSEE FIVE TOPS MARS HILL BY 55-52 COUNT

MARS HILL—The Mars Hill college Lions roared for nearly three-quarters of the game only to blow a ten point lead in the last half as a fighting quintet from Hiwassee junior college came from behind and defeated them 55 to 52 last night at the Mars Hill gym before a 1,000 fans.

The Mars Hill quint started out like a house a-fire and were leading at the half-time by a 25-23 count. MARS HILL — The Mars Hill Mountain Lions broke loose in the fifth inning here Tuesday afternoon, scoring five runs to defeat the Asheville - Biltmore college Bulldogs, 8-4, in a Western conference baseball game.

Stapleton fanned six, allowed eight hits. The A-B trio allowed 16 bingles, striking out six, also.

Brown, with three singles and a double in five trips to the plate, led the Hillians at the plate, while Gilmore's three for four was next.

Straight Talk

Feb 17, 1949

Last Saturday night Emmett Sams, our very reliable reporter of things athletic at Mars Hill College, called to report results of the Mountain Lion tussle with Hiawassee. Things went along fine until Emmett said "Brevard Brown, 36 points."... We asked him to please repeat and talk slower, and when the answer still came out the same we asked for further information on this phenomenon of the hardwood.

We knew that Brevard has a few things in common with another hardwood artist — one Coy Carson—because both hail from Asheville... And after getting a look at his record for the past two seasons, we are immediately recommending him to one Tom Scott as a teammate for Carson before Murray Greason or Everett Case learn his address... You know, he does still have three years of varsity eligibility remaining after finishing up Junior College this season.

Brevard probably wouldn't get a second look from Adolph Rupp, who says if a guy don't duck coming in at a six foot six inch door he doesn't even bother to shake hands... He stands well under six feet in height, but his record speaks for itself.

BREVARD BROWN
He Sizzles On Hardwood

Last year Brevard sizzled the hoop for a total of 323 points in 21 games, but has already beaten his own record with 328 points in only 18 games so far this season... And there are still two games to go... This stacks up as a total of 651 points for 39 games, or an average of 16.7 points per game.

Last Saturday night, Brevard topped off his two-year performance by setting a new court record at Mars Hill Junior College when he bucketed 36 points against Hiawassee in a conference game.

But as a further warning to Scott, Greason and Case, basketball is just one of Brevard's ideas for amusement.

He is the regular shortstop on Coach Red Ramsey's Mountain Lions baseball team and is considered something more than a warm number on double plays... He batted in leadoff position for the Lions last season and ended up with a .353 swat average in junior college competition.

Last spring Coach Edwards was in need of a man who could broad jump to round out his team of thinly clad—and Brevard came through... He jumped 21 feet, 7 inches to capture several first places in track competition.... At least once he did a double act that still has the boys talking... He was all hooked up in a baseball game and nearby the Lions were engaged in a track meet... So, while his team was at bat, Brevard hopped over to the jumping pit, jumped his usual 21 feet and then went back to take his cut at the baseball.

Another note which might be of interest to the university boys is the fact that Brevard is also no slouch as a student... He has a very high scholastic average, having made the Dean's list each of the three semesters he has been enrolled at Mars Hill Junior College.... Incidentally, making the Dean's list only requires a 40 quality point rating or "A" average.

The line forms to the right with Scott, Greason and Case please holding their places like the gentlemen they are.

In the nightcap, Brevard Brown's 21 points were a big feature in the Mars Hill 58-53 triumph over the Asheville-Biltmore College quintet. Brown's exceptional ability to score when the chips were down proved the Bulldogs' downfall. That, and the fact that the Bulldogs were decidedly off form, gave Asheville-Biltmore its second junior conference loss of the season.

The Bulldogs started the game off at a terrific pace as they showered the basket with shots but couldn't hit for scores. Johnny Israel and Captain Jack Brinkley gave them a 9-8 lead at the end of the first period.

Mars Hill rallied in the second. Johnny Shaver, Brevard Brown, Bill High, and Bobby Steele came up with a bunch of pretty plays all climaxed by scores to send the Mountain Lions out front at the half, 26 to 18.

Coach Floyd Woody's pep talk between halves must have given the Bulldogs new life as they answered the bell for the third quarter. Brinkley, Kenneth Rudeen, and Dub Thompson spearheaded the rally which closed the gap at the end of the period to a 39-34 count with Mars Hill still in the lead.

The fourth quarter was a thriller. Larry Carter, who played a fine defensive game all evening long, initiated the Bulldogs' scoring. Brinkley hit twice for scores. Rudeen hit once, and with about four minutes gone in the period, Israel tied the score at 40-40. From that point on, until the end of the game it was nip-and-tuck as each team fought for the lead.

With about a minute to play, Brown turned on the heat, slicing in three quick field goals and a pair of free throws to send the Lions out front, 58-53, and that's the way it ended.

Tribe Wins Over Elon In Overtime

ELON COLLEGE, Jan. 27—(AP)—Catawba's Indians, playing it smoothly and safely, turned loose their two scoring aces, Larry Graham and Brevard Brown, in the second of two overtime periods to conquer Elon's Christians 84 to 79 here tonight in a North State conference thriller.

Graham, taking things into his own hands, pulled the Tribe into the first overtime, through that and then combined with Brown in the second extra period.

Otherwise, the Catawba forward took the hero's role away from Elon's giant Don Haithcox who sent his club into a tie with five seconds remaining in the game and who then shared honors with sub Ned Gaudlin in the first of the extra periods.

Graham emerged as the game's high scorer with 23 points for the night and Brown contributed 21. Haithcox was top point getter for Elon with 19 points.

Varela Wins Singles In North State

High Point college's tennis team of 1951 took the lion's share of honors in North State conference net play this spring. Last week, the Panthers won the team championship, a repeat from 1950. And yesterday at the Sedgefield Inn courts, freshman Mike Reyes Varela of the High Point won the singles championship for 1951.

Varela spanked Gene Winfree of Lenoir-Rhyne without raising a sweat. The little Mexican native won in straight love sets, 6-0, 6-0. He needed only 25 minutes to take the title.

Varela succeeds Bill Winstead of Elon, last year's singles champ.

Yesterday, the High Point doubles team couldn't manage a win. Charley Horcasatis and John Franklin were defeated by Brevard Brown and Don Thompson of Catawba. The scoring went 6-5, 5-7, 7-5. That was the highlight duel of the finals. Henry and Neil Maddux of High Point were the doubles champs last year.

The doubles match was ranked as a mild upset but the very closeness of the score attested to the fine battle the Horcasatis-Franklin duo waged.

In regular season, High Point took 10 straight matches without defeat from conference foes.

Doris Thomasson Becomes Bride Of Herbert Brown

BRYSON CITY, Aug. 15—Doris Thomasson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Berlin Claude Thomasson of Bryson City, became the bride of Herbert Brevard Brown of Winston-Salem last night in the First Baptist Church of Bryson City.

The Rev. W. H. Brown, father of the bridegroom and pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with arrangements of seven-branched candelabra, baskets and vases of white gladioli, asters and chrysanthemums with southern smilax against a background of woodwardia fern and palms.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Grover Wilkes of Sylva, aunt of the bride, organist; Miss Emily Johnson of Bryson City, pianist, and Miss Joanne Smith of Kerens, Texas, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown of Chantilly lace and satin. The fitted bodice of lace over satin was topped with a yoke of illusion edged with seed pearls and finished with a Peter Pan collar of lace over satin. Matching covered buttons reached to the waist line. Lace sleeves ended in calla points over the hands. The bouffant skirt of satin was trimmed with twin lace panels in front and similar panels in the back extended the entire length of the cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a Juliet cap of lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of bride's roses showered with stephanotis and centered with a white orchid and valley lilies.

Miss Juanita Brown of Winston-Salem, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a full length turquoise gown of nylon tulle over taffeta. The bodice and matching jacket featured white lace on the tulle. Her headdress was of matching net and seed pearls. She carried a garden hat filled with mixed summer flowers in pastel shades and tied with multi-colored ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Rachel Stone of Greenville, and Miss Betty Anne Winslow of Asheville. Their gowns are similar to that of the honor attendant and they also carried garden hats of mixed flowers.

Elias Moschovis of Winston-Salem served as best man. Ushers were Clay Chandley of Asheville, Walter Kirk of Washington, D. C., Odell Sechrist of Winston-Salem and Virgii Zapata of Guatemala City, Guatemala.

A reception was held at the home of the bride. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Nell Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Wold and Mrs. Frank Farrell of Bryson City, Mrs. Rowell Stanton of Rome, Ga., and Misses Rebecca and Bernice Brown of Winston-Salem.

Following the reception the couple left by car for a trip through the Shenandoah Valley. For traveling the bride wore a beige silk shantung suit and ruby red accessories. Her corsage was the orchid and valley lilies detached from her bouquet.

The bride was graduated from Meredith College and the school of medical technology of Bowman-Gray School of Medicine. She is now employed at Greenville, S. C. General Hospital.

Mr. Brown is a graduate of Mars Hill College and Catawba College. He has done graduate work at Bob Jones University.

After August the couple will make their home in Fort Worth, Texas, where Mr. Brown will attend Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.
